Credit is not necessary.

I'll keep it simple...

The only things you may not do:

- You MAY NOT redistribute the original files individually or as a group.
- You MAY NOT use the designs in printed commercial products (example: digital printables are ok, creating actual paper lines for paper scrappers is not ok).
- You MAY NOT offer these graphics on any web site as downloads or send them through a news list or Facebook/Yahoo Groups. They are not for your free distribution. This is considered pirating, and is ILLEGAL!

All images, graphics and content in this product, are copyrighted by © 2017 Designer Resources by Christine unless otherwise stated. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. At all times the content of this product remains the sole property of the original creator (Designer Resources by Christine).

Designer Resources by Christine shall not be responsible under any circumstances for any loss or damages resulting from the use or inability to use products provided.
